A Day With World Bank President

(a proposed article to be published in a leading Chinese newspaper)

Target Reader: general and professional Chinese
Language: Chinese (since a leading Chinese newspaper has millions of readers)
Content: through a description and an analysis of President's working in a day, introduce Who is the President, What is he doing, Why and How ? Analyzing how the President manage the challenges facing the World Bank.
Significance: it will attract the interests of millions of readers not only to the personality of the president, but also to the reform and future of World Bank.

Author's Brief Bibliography: Dr. Yushu Feng, a World Bank Visiting Research Fellow, on leave from Ministry of Finance of China (a division chief at World Bank Dept.); Global Leader for Tomorrow awarded at Davos World Economic Forum in 1994; author of a number of professional articles and books on international law and economics.

P.S. I have talked about this to Mr. Wolfensohn during the reception at IFC on April 4. He agreed with a remark this is "a great idea", and introduced me to Mr. Mark Malloch Brown to finalize it. Mr. Malloch Brown suggested me to contact you. I am looking forward to schedule a representative day of Mr. Wolfenson. My phone no. is 202-473-1373, and room no. is 9K-278.
