November 10, 1977

Dear _____:

I have pleasure in sending you further information, and background papers, for the meeting of population donors to be held in London on December 5-6, 1977, which your agency has indicated it plans to attend. One set of the papers are sent herewith and two sets will be sent separately for use by your representative(s) or other staff (most agencies are expected to send one or two representatives. We hope this will keep the meeting small and focussed in its deliberations.)

As indicated in my letter of August 18, 1977, the general topic of the meeting is "Project Co-financing and Aid Coordination in the Population Sector", with some emphasis on countries and projects that have involved World Bank assistance. However, as you can see from the papers enclosed, this experience reflects some broad and important questions which are of general concern to all of us who work in population assistance.

The preliminary agenda suggest some of the specific topics to be covered. Our intention is to keep the discussion informal and candid, and not to issue any statements or press release at the conclusion. A report will be prepared of the deliberations of the group that may give us useful guidance for the future. The Chairmen and opening speakers will be designated before the meetings begin and will be indicated on the final agenda.

We have, in a number of cases, already received the name and designation of the representative(s) who will attend. If you have not already done so, please confirm to us the name and designation of your representative(s) - if possible before November 25, 1977. We expect to complete the discussions by late afternoon on December 6. The Bank's participants, however, will be available on the morning of December 7 for any individual consultations which other donors may wish to hold. Participation on the 7th is therefore optional.

I want to draw attention to the documentation enclosed. The discussion paper on "Project Co-financing and Aid Coordination in the Population Sector", and on the "World Bank's Lending Policies and Procedures" would merit closer study. The third document on "World Bank Lending for Population 1969-77" is intended as a background paper.

We look forward to a useful and productive meeting that will contribute to still more effective external assistance in the population field.

Sincerely,

K. Kanagaratnam
Director
Population Projects Department

PRELIMINARY AGENDA

NOTE: The general format for each session will be for an invited speaker to ~~open up~~ ^{introduce} the subject with an informal talk of not more than 10 minutes. The remainder of each session will be devoted to the presentation of agency viewpoints and general discussion. The names of chairmen and introductory speakers will be listed on the final agenda, which will be distributed at the opening session. Each morning and afternoon session will be ^{of} roughly ~~equally~~ ^{equal} divided but some flexibility is envisaged based on the relative interest and content of the subject matter and the resultant discussion. ^{equal duration}

December 5, Morning Session

- I. Opening statement on the ^{objectives, anticipated} ~~purposes, hoped-for~~ results, and format of the meeting. Bank (10 minutes)
- II. General Orientation Towards Co-financing and Aid Coordination
This session will be an appropriate place for agency representatives who wish to make brief statements (3-5 minutes) on their own policies and objectives as well as priorities and constraints in population assistance. Longer statements could be given to the Bank Secretariat for use in the Conference Report.
- III. Identification of Key Problems in Co-financing

December 5, Afternoon Session

- IV. The Host Government's Perspective
- V. Putting Together a Financing Package

December 6, Morning Session

- VI. ^{supplemental} ~~Supplementation~~ Discussion of Key Problems (as defined by participants)
The meeting will break up into three working groups to discuss specific problem areas involved in co-financing and aid coordination. The working groups will make a brief report to the Plenary.
- VII. ~~UNFPA's "Multi-Bi" Program - its~~ ^{of} Interrelationship with World Bank Co-Financing and UNFPA's "Multi-Bi" Program

December 6, Afternoon Session

- VIII. Steps to Reduce the Burden of Multiple Donors on Host Governments
- IX. Future Directions: Desirable/Feasible Changes in Co-financing and Aid Coordination (including consideration of critical points which have surfaced in earlier discussions)

December 7, Morning Session (optional)

Bank staff will be available for individual discussions with donor representatives.

1. I would like to thank you for your assistance in planning the meeting and also for your help in preparing the background materials. I am sending you herewith two sets of background materials. They include: (a) World Bank Lending Policies and Procedures in the Population Sector; (b) Project Co-Financing and Aid Coordination in the Population Sector: A Discussion Paper; and (c) World Bank Lending for Population: 1969-77. I'm also attaching two copies of the information sheet and the preliminary agenda for the meeting.

2. Because these discussions will need to be set in the background of Bank policies and procedures in co-financing and aid coordination in general, and you are involved heavily in Bank policy on co-financing, we would very much like to have you participate in our London meeting as an expert in co-financing techniques.

Dear Mr. Maeda:

As we telexed Mr. Kobayakawa on November 7, we are enclosing an envelope containing background papers for the London Donors' Meeting with a copy of our letter to Mr. Miyake. We would be grateful if you would kindly transmit this to him. We are also enclosing another set of background material and a copy of our letter to Mr. Miyake for your information. Please advise Mr. Miyake we will send another two sets soon. Should they need more, please telex us.

As we have to make a list of participants for this meeting, we would be grateful if you could find out names of representatives from Japan and, if possible, please let us know by November 25.

I just would like to add my thanks for your assistance and your establishing contact with Mr. Miyake and also interesting them to participate in this meeting.

Sincerely,

K. Kanagaratnam

Mr. M. Faguy
Director
Financial Institutions Division
Canadian International Development Agency
112 Bank Street
Ottawa, Canada K1A 0G4

Dear Mr. Faguy:

I have pleasure in sending you further information, and background papers, for the meeting of population donors to be held in London on December 5-6, 1977, in which your agency has expressed interest. One set of the papers are sent herewith and two sets will be sent separately for use by your representative(s) or other staff (most agencies are expected to send one or two representatives. We hope this will keep the meeting small and focussed in its deliberations.)

As indicated in my letter of August 18, 1977, the general topic of the meeting is "Project Co-financing and Aid Coordination in the Population Sector", with some emphasis on countries and projects that have involved World Bank assistance. However, as you can see from the papers enclosed, this experience reflects some broad and important questions which are of general concern to all of us who work in population assistance.

The preliminary agenda suggest some of the specific topics to be covered. Our intention is to keep the discussion informal and candid, and not to issue any statements or press release at the conclusion. A report will be prepared of the deliberations of the group that may give us useful guidance for the future. The Chairmen and opening speakers will be designated before the meetings begin and will be indicated on the final agenda.

We have, in a number of cases, already received the name and designation of the representative(s) who will attend. If you have not already done so, please confirm to us the name and designation of your representative(s) - if possible before November 25, 1977. We expect to complete the discussions by late afternoon on December 6. The Bank's participants, however, will be available on the morning of December 7 for any individual consultations which other donors may wish to hold. Participation on the 7th is therefore optional.

I want to draw attention to the documentation enclosed. The discussion paper on "Project Co-financing and Aid Coordination in the Population Sector", and on the "World Bank's Lending Policies and Procedures" would merit closer study. The third document on "World Bank Lending for Population 1969-77" is intended as a background paper.

We look forward to a useful and productive meeting that will contribute to still more effective external assistance in the population field.

Sincerely,

K. Kanagaratnam

Population Projects Department

November 1977

PRELIMINARY AGENDA

NOTE: The general format for each session will be for an invited speaker to introduce the subject with an informal talk of not more than 10 minutes. The remainder of each session will be devoted to the presentation of agency viewpoints and general discussion. The names of chairmen and introductory speakers will be listed on the final agenda, which will be distributed at the opening session. Each morning and afternoon session will be of roughly equal duration but some flexibility is envisaged based on the relative interest and content of the subject matter and the resultant discussion.

December 5, Morning Session

- I. Opening statement on the objectives, anticipated results, and format of the meeting. Bank (10 minutes)
- II. General Orientation Towards Co-financing and Aid Coordination
This session will be an appropriate place for agency representatives who wish to make brief statements (3-5 minutes) on their own policies and objectives as well as priorities and constraints in population assistance. Longer statements could be given to the Bank Secretariat for use in the Conference Report.
- III. Identification of Key Problems in Co-financing

December 5, Afternoon Session

- IV. The Host Government's Perspective
- V. Putting Together a Financing Package

December 6, Morning Session

- VI. Supplemental Discussion of Key Problems (as defined by participants)
The meeting will break up into three working groups to discuss specific problem areas involved in co-financing and aid coordination. The working groups will make a brief report to the Plenary.
- VII. Interrelationship of World Bank Co-Financing and UNFPA's "Multi-Bi" Program

December 6, Afternoon Session

- VIII. Steps to Reduce the Burden of Multiple Donors on Host Governments
- IX. Future Directions: Desirable/Feasible Changes in Co-financing and Aid Coordination (including consideration of critical points which have surfaced in earlier discussions)

December 7, Morning Session (optional)

Bank staff will be available for individual discussions with donor representatives.

Gentlemen:

I have pleasure in sending you further information, and background papers, for the meeting of population donors to be held in London on December 5-6, 1977, which deals with a matter in which your agency has expressed interest. One set of the papers are sent herewith and two sets will be sent separately for use by your representative(s) or other staff (most agencies are expected to send one or two representatives. We hope this will keep the meeting small and focussed in its deliberations.)

As indicated in my letter of August 18, 1977, the general topic of the meeting is "Project Co-financing and Aid Coordination in the Population Sector", with some emphasis on countries and projects that have involved World Bank assistance. However, as you can see from the papers enclosed, this experience reflects some broad and important questions which are of general concern to all of us who work in population assistance.

The preliminary agenda suggest some of the specific topics to be covered. Our intention is to keep the discussion informal and candid, and not to issue any statements or press release at the conclusion. A report will be prepared of the deliberations of the group that may give us useful guidance for the future. The Chairmen and opening speakers will be designated before the meetings begin and will be indicated on the final agenda.

We have, in a number of cases, already received the name and designation of the representative(s) who will attend. If you have not already done so, please confirm to us the name and designation of your representative(s) - if possible before November 25, 1977. We expect to complete the discussions by late afternoon on December 6. The Bank's participants, however, will be available on the morning of December 7 for any individual consultations which other donors may wish to hold. Participation on the 7th is therefore optional.

I want to draw attention to the documentation enclosed. The discussion paper on "Project Co-financing and Aid Coordination in the Population Sector", and on the "World Bank's Lending Policies and Procedures" would merit closer study. The third document on "World Bank Lending for Population 1969-77" is intended as a background paper.

We look forward to a useful and productive meeting that will contribute to still more effective external assistance in the population field.

Sincerely,

K. Kanagaratnam
Director
Population Projects Department

The World Bank
Population Projects Department
November 1977

PRELIMINARY AGENDA

NOTE: The general format for each session will be for an invited speaker to introduce the subject with an informal talk of not more than 10 minutes. The remainder of each session will be devoted to the presentation of agency viewpoints and general discussion. The names of chairmen and introductory speakers will be listed on the final agenda, which will be distributed at the opening session. Each morning and afternoon session will be of roughly equal duration but some flexibility is envisaged based on the relative interest and content of the subject matter and the resultant discussion.

December 5, Morning Session

- I. Opening statement on the objectives, anticipated results, and format of the meeting. Bank (10 minutes)
- II. General Orientation Towards Co-financing and Aid Coordination
This session will be an appropriate place for agency representatives who wish to make brief statements (3-5 minutes) on their own policies and objectives as well as priorities and constraints in population assistance. Longer statements could be given to the Bank Secretariat for use in the Conference Report.

III. Identification of Key Problems in Co-financing

December 5, Afternoon Session

- IV. The Host Government's Perspective
- V. Putting Together a Financing Package

December 6, Morning Session

- VI. Supplemental Discussion of Key Problems (as defined by participants)
The meeting will break up into three working groups to discuss specific problem areas involved in co-financing and aid coordination. The working groups will make a brief report to the Plenary.
- VII. Interrelationship of World Bank Co-Financing and UNFPA's "Multi-Bi" Program

December 6, Afternoon Session

- VIII. Steps to Reduce the Burden of Multiple Donors on Host Governments
- IX. Future Directions: Desirable/Feasible Changes in Co-financing and Aid Coordination (including consideration of critical points which have surfaced in earlier discussions)

December 7, Morning Session (optional)

Bank staff will be available for individual discussions with donor representatives.

November 10, 1977

Mr. Sander Levin
Assistant Administrator for Population and Humanitarian Assistance
United States Agency for International Development
Room 3932 - New State
Washington, D.C. 20523

Dear Sandy:

I have pleasure in sending you further information, and background papers, for the meeting of population donors to be held in London on December 5-6, 1977, which your agency has indicated it plans to attend. One set of the papers are sent herewith and two sets will be sent separately for use by your representative(s) or other staff (most agencies are expected to send one or two representatives. We hope this will keep the meeting small and focussed in its deliberations.)

As indicated in my letter of August 18, 1977, the general topic of the meeting is "Project Co-financing and Aid Coordination in the Population Sector", with some emphasis on countries and projects that have involved World Bank assistance. However, as you can see from the papers enclosed, this experience reflects some broad and important questions which are of general concern to all of us who work in population assistance.

The preliminary agenda suggest some of the specific topics to be covered. Our intention is to keep the discussion informal and candid, and not to issue any statements or press release at the conclusion. A report will be prepared of the deliberations of the group that may give us useful guidance for the future. The Chairmen and opening speakers will be designated before the meetings begin and will be indicated on the final agenda.

We have, in a number of cases, already received the name and designation of the representative(s) who will attend. If you have not already done so, please confirm to us the name and designation of your representative(s) - if possible before November 25, 1977. We expect to complete the discussions by late afternoon on December 6. The Bank's participants, however, will be available on the morning of December 7 for any individual consultations which other donors may wish to hold. Participation on the 7th is therefore optional.

I want to draw attention to the documentation enclosed. The discussion paper on "Project Co-financing and Aid Coordination in the Population Sector", and on the "World Bank's Lending Policies and Procedures" would merit closer study. The third document on "World Bank Lending for Population 1969-77" is intended as a background paper.

We look forward to a useful and productive meeting that will contribute to still more effective external assistance in the population field.

Sincerely,

K. Kanagaratnam
Director

105 25 Stockholm, Sweden

Dear Carl:

I have pleasure in sending you further information, and background papers, for the meeting of population donors to be held in London on December 5-6, 1977, which your agency has indicated it plans to attend. One set of the papers are sent herewith and two sets will be sent separately for use by your representative(s) or other staff (most agencies are expected to send one or two representatives. We hope this will keep the meeting small and focussed in its deliberations.)

As indicated in my letter of August 18, 1977, the general topic of the meeting is "Project Co-financing and Aid Coordination in the Population Sector", with some emphasis on countries and projects that have involved World Bank assistance. However, as you can see from the papers enclosed, this experience reflects some broad and important questions which are of general concern to all of us who work in population assistance.

The preliminary agenda suggest some of the specific topics to be covered. Our intention is to keep the discussion informal and candid, and not to issue any statements or press release at the conclusion. A report will be prepared of the deliberations of the group that may give us useful guidance for the future. The Chairmen and opening speakers will be designated before the meetings begin and will be indicated on the final agenda.

We have, in a number of cases, already received the name and designation of the representative(s) who will attend. If you have not already done so, please confirm to us the name and designation of your representative(s) - if possible before November 25, 1977. We expect to complete the discussions by late afternoon on December 6. The Bank's participants, however, will be available on the morning of December 7 for any individual consultations which other donors may wish to hold. Participation on the 7th is therefore optional.

I want to draw attention to the documentation enclosed. The discussion paper on "Project Co-financing and Aid Coordination in the Population Sector", and on the "World Bank's Lending Policies and Procedures" would merit closer study. The third document on "World Bank Lending for Population 1969-77" is intended as a background paper.

We look forward to a useful and productive meeting that will contribute to still more effective external assistance in the population field.

Sincerely,

K. Kanagaratnam
Director
Population Projects Department

November 1977

PRELIMINARY AGENDA

NOTE: The general format for each session will be for an invited speaker to introduce the subject with an informal talk of not more than 10 minutes. The remainder of each session will be devoted to the presentation of agency viewpoints and general discussion. The names of chairmen and introductory speakers will be listed on the final agenda, which will be distributed at the opening session. Each morning and afternoon session will be of roughly equal duration but some flexibility is envisaged based on the relative interest and content of the subject matter and the resultant discussion.

December 5, Morning Session

- I. Opening statement on the objectives, anticipated results, and format of the meeting. Bank (10 minutes)
- II. General Orientation Towards Co-financing and Aid Coordination
This session will be an appropriate place for agency representatives who wish to make brief statements (3-5 minutes) on their own policies and objectives as well as priorities and constraints in population assistance. Longer statements could be given to the Bank Secretariat for use in the Conference Report.
- III. Identification of Key Problems in Co-financing

December 5, Afternoon Session

- IV. The Host Government's Perspective
- V. Putting Together a Financing Package

December 6, Morning Session

- VI. Supplemental Discussion of Key Problems (as defined by participants)
The meeting will break up into three working groups to discuss specific problem areas involved in co-financing and aid coordination. The working groups will make a brief report to the Plenary.
- VII. Interrelationship of World Bank Co-Financing and UNFPA's "Multi-Bi" Program

December 6, Afternoon Session

- VIII. Steps to Reduce the Burden of Multiple Donors on Host Governments
- IX. Future Directions: Desirable/Feasible Changes in Co-financing and Aid Coordination (including consideration of critical points which have surfaced in earlier discussions)

December 7, Morning Session (optional)

Bank staff will be available for individual discussions with donor representatives.
