Nick --

As you know, Jim is here in London meeting with British Members of Parliament and other leaders. He knows about the Stephen Stares tragedy, and has asked me to send the following message to you and, through you, to members of the Department.

Best,

Geoff

Message from Mr. Wolfensohn, currently in London

Dear Nick,

"I am very shocked to hear about the tragic death of Stephen Stares. I am so sorry that I am away from Washington and unable to express my sadness and condolences directly to all of Stephen's friends and colleagues in the department. I know that you will be doing all that we can to comfort Stephen's family, and I want you to know that I have today written with my personal condolences to his parents in Dorset.

Sincerely,

Jim Wolfensohn."

SUBJECT: RE: Message from the President

Geoff,

Please thank Mr. Wolfensohn on behalf of the whole Department. Stephen Stares was an exceptional professional, colleague and friend. His passing is a great loss to us individually, but also a great loss for the Bank in its work in China.

Best regards,

Nick.
