

Internship # 6 - Support to analytical work on fiscal policy post-COVID 19 recovery, with focus on climate change

Macro-Fiscal (MTI) Unit in the Latin America and Caribbean region

Location: Washington, D.C.

The Equitable Growth, Finance, and Institutions Practice Group (EFI) is one of the World Bank Group's four Practice Groups. EFI's mandate is "Growth, Finance, and Institutions for all." EFI's approach is to leverage public and private sector expertise, together with International Finance Corporation (IFC), to support a data-driven reform agenda. EFI supports clients in advancing evidence-based structural reforms to build the foundations for inclusive and sustainable growth. As part of the EFI Practice Group, the Macroeconomics Trade and Investment (MTI) Global Practice leads the World Bank Group's dialogue and engagement with clients in macroeconomics fiscal policy trade competition and investment.

The World Bank's Macro-Fiscal (MTI) Unit in the Latin America and Caribbean region is seeking an intern to undertake and support regional analytical work in the fiscal policy for post-COVID recovery, with an additional focus on climate change.

Qualifications

- The successful candidate will have a background/degree in economics.
- Additional training/experience in one of the following fields will be an advantage: fiscal policy (especially domestic resource mobilization), climate economics, macroeconomic modelling, or firm-level econometrics
- Strong writing skills would be an advantage
- Ability to work in English is essential, and Spanish language skills would be an advantage.
- The post will be located in Washington, D.C. for a duration of 6 months. Telecommuting will be possible.