Transportation Security Administration (TSA) on airline travel

- Travelers with a driver's license that expired after March 1, 2020, and who are not able to renew, may still use it as acceptable identification at TSA checkpoints
- As of May 3, 2023 Real ID compliant driver licenses will be required for air travel within the United States. WBG HR does not recommend applying for non-compliant driver licenses
- TSA identification updates are online: <https://www.tsa.gov/travel/security-screening/identification>

Social Security Administration (SSA) for Social Security Numbers or Non-Eligibility Letters

- Generally, only non-US citizens authorized to work in the United States by the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) are eligible to receive a Social Security Number (SSN)
- G-4 visa holders do not need an SSN to obtain a driver's license
- To obtain a SSN non-eligibility (denial) letter in-lieu of an SSN, complete and submit SSA Form SS-05 in-person or by mail
- Contact the Washington, DC field office 9am-4pm at 1-866-708-3255
- SSA is accepting appointments for urgent requests, contact SSA at 1-800-772-1213
