

C4D2 TRAINING

ROME | CENTER FOR DEVELOPMENT DATA

Measuring Consumption Through Household Surveys

June 10 – June 14, 2019

Frascati (RM), Italy

PROGRAM

Facilitated by

Giovanni Vecchi, Professor, University of Rome “Tor Vergata”
Giulia Mancini, PhD, Researcher, University of Rome “Tor Vergata”
Sédi-Anne Boukaka, PhD Candidate, University of Rome “Tor Vergata”

The program features four kinds of activities:

- Traditional Teaching, where sample selected lectures from the course are taught to participants by the main instructors.
- Walkthrough Lectures, where the main instructors provide an overview of some of the lectures.
- Trainers' Presentations, where participants, who have received the teaching material in advance, are invited to teach parts of the lectures themselves, and receive feedback from the class and the main instructors.
- Seminar Presentations, featuring the presentation of special topics related to the course by guest speakers.
