In 2016, Danish Refugee Council (DRC) and Grundfos established the Business-Humanitarian Partnership Lab, a joint initiative to innovate through co-creation to bring sustainable water solutions to refugees and internally displaced people. Leveraging DRC's presence on the ground in Uganda and Grundfos' solar-driven water solutions, the partners developed cost-efficient and environmentally friendly water systems benefitting 20,000 individuals from both refugee and host populations. Building on their joint pilot project, DRC and Grundfos went on to further refine the concept, promoting a Build-Operate-Transfer approach to enable a shift to more sustainable water solutions.
