Introduction

Background

The World Bank Group recognizes that transparency and accountability are essential to effective development and central to achieving its mission to alleviate poverty. The WBG’s commitment to openness is also driven by a desire to foster public ownership, partnership, and participation in development from a wide range of stakeholders. As a knowledge institution, the WBG’s first step is to share its knowledge freely and openly.

WBG’s Finances One is a digital platform that provides clients and partners with access to public financial data and portfolio information from across all Group entities. One of the datasets being published is the procurement dataset, which includes contract award data and procurement notices relating to WBG Project Financed Procurement.

Purpose

The purpose of this Finances One guidance is to assist users in navigating the platform. It:

a. explains key concepts found in the Finances One platform;

b. outlines the usage and functionality of the platform when accessing procurement data; and

c. provides essential information and links to additional information.

This guidance will serve the business community in finding and accessing procurement opportunities and contract awards data.

Data Source

The current data source is STEP (Systematic Tracking of Exchanges in Procurement; see https://step.worldbank.org/), which is used by Borrowers in all IPF operations. STEP is subject to the World Bank’s Procurement Regulations. Data is entered into STEP by Borrowers. “Supplier Country” represents the country where the supplier is registered, which may or may not be the supplier’s actual country of origin. Information does not include awards to subcontractors, nor does it account for co-financing.
Version

Currently, the Finances One platform is accessible through any internet capable device (for instance, iPhone, iPad, Android devices, computers, etc.). This guidance focuses in particular on navigating the Finances One platform using a computer.

Getting Started

The platform does not require registration or sign-in to begin use. Sign in is only required when customizing and saving visualizations, or when using some specific options.

Frequently Asked Questions

Is the Finances One platform available for Android and iOS devices?

Yes. It is available on iPhone, iPad, Android devices, computers, and laptops.

Which languages are available for use with this platform?

At this time, Finances One is only available in English.

Can I download or export the data found on this platform?

Yes. Please see the section entitled ‘Extracting Data on an Excel Spreadsheet’.

Where can I find more information about a project that is associated with a tender notice and/or contract?

There are two ways to access this additional information.

1. Download and install the Project Procurement application through this link: https://itunes.apple.com/us/app/world-bank-project-procurement/id911312962?mt=8

2. Through a web browser, the user can access the website http://projects.worldbank.org/ and enter the corresponding Project ID into the search field to display further information.

Are there any limitations to the available data?

A potential limitation involves Supplier country-of-origin. The World Bank determines the country of origin of a supplier (company or individual) based on the country in which the supplier is registered as a legal business entity. If a contract is awarded to a subsidiary registered in a country (Country A) and the parent company is registered in a different country (Country B), then the data reflects the country of origin as that registered by the subsidiary (Country A).

Why are certain suppliers labeled as ‘individual’?

The term ‘individual’ is used when a consultant contract is awarded to an individual, self-employed person. The term is used instead of the name of an awarded supplier. This practice is in place to protect personal privacy.
Does the data include both Prior and Post Reviewed contract information?

Yes. Post reviewed contracts were added as from FY17.

How do I register to bid?

There is no requirement to register before submitting a bid or proposal.

What is a procurement notice?

Borrowers inform bidders of upcoming procurement/contract opportunities by publishing the procurement notice, which may be in the form of an invitation for bids or a request for expression of interest (REOI).

Borrowers also publish notices of contract awards to inform participants in a procurement process as well as the public which bidder was successful and was selected for the award of contract.

If I can’t find what I need, who do I contact?

Call: +1-202-473-1000 or reach out to any of these procurement staff members:
