Dear Mr. Black:

Many thanks for your thoughtful letter of June 20. It was a pleasure to have you and Mrs. Black here; and your visit had a most beneficial effect on Sudanese officialdom.

The Sudanese, when they thought the Bank was moving too slowly, tended to blame the United States, even though they knew better. Now that they are pleased with the Bank, I hope they will persist in the same error and give the United States Government some credit, at least, for the Bank's action.

Please arrange to visit Khartoum again--preferably in January or February. We would be delighted to see you.

OFFICE MEMORANDUM

TO: Mr. S. R. Cope

DATE: June 27, 1960

FROM: J. H. Williams

J.H.W.

SUBJECT: Mr. Black's Trip in French Africa

You asked for some quick notes on Mr. Black's reactions to French Africa.

1. The Bank knows very little about French Africa, primarily because in the past the French have been unwilling to associate the Bank with their general development activities and have been willing only to bring in big industrial projects which they probably through could be dealt with almost in isolation.
2. Conversely, very few people in French Africa appear to know anything about the Bank.
3. It will be difficult to establish contact with the many new independent governments into which French Africa is now split. While it is true that the role of the French in economic development is likely to devolve at least to some extent on the Bank and more particularly on IDA, and while it is true that it would be unfortunate if there were a gap between the French departure and the Bank's arrival, it does not follow that the Bank would be wise to accept Mr. Larre's argument that we should make haste to establish initial contacts before the French leave. Relations between France and the countries that are newly independent or about to be are generally friendly, but all of them are anxious to sever their present ties with France even where there is every intention of creating new ones. For the Bank to go in under French sponsorship, therefore, might get us off on the wrong foot.
4. The French have poured large sums of money into French Africa a fonds perdu. As a result, there are some areas where infrastructure has been highly developed, indeed over developed, while the local governments have acquired little or no appreciation of the cost of capital.

Mr. Black's Visit to Mali - May 26 - May 30

Mr. and Mrs. Black, Miss Linahan, Mr. Larre, Mr. Gibbs and myself arrived in Dakar on Tuesday evening, May 26th, and were received at the airport by M. Doudou Thiam, Minister of Finance of Mali, M. Ba, Acting Chief of Protocol of Mali, M. Chataignat, representing the Prime Minister of Sudan and President of Mali, and M. Max, diplomatic representative active of the French High Commissioner in Senegal.

We spent the following morning visiting the city with M. Ba and began our official meetings in the afternoon with a protocol visit to Col. Diagne, representing the absent High Commissioner of Senegal. We met in succession M. Karim Gaye (Minister of Economic Affairs and Plan of Senegal), M. Peytevin, a young French veterinarian recently promoted Minister of Finance of Senegal, M. Mamadou Dia, Prime Minister of Senegal and Vice-President of Mali. MM. Gaye and Thiam made a generally favorable impression; the meeting with M. Mamadou Dia was the most important and the least agreeable.

To each minister in turn Mr. Black explained that the possibility of access to the Bank had hitherto been through the French membership and that as an independent country Mali would necessarily be disqualified from Bank assistance unless and until they joined the Bank in their own right. He said that while they would be very welcome as a new member, he had not come to press them to join and that any decision to do so was entirely theirs. He also went over Bank procedures and policies stressing (in view of the evident interventionist temper of the Mali Government) that the Bank would not consider government controlled industrial projects. The ministers were particularly interested in the probable size of Mali's quota and how it would be determined. When they expressed uncertainty as to how to go about joining the Bank, Mr. Larre indicated that France would be ready to help and was prepared to discuss how the funds required for Mali's capital subscription could be found.

M. Mamadou Dia either had a chip on his shoulder or wanted to make an impression or both. (He was subsequently described by virtually everyone we met - consuls and businessmen alike - as being a very difficult person to get on with and as unlikely to win a popularity contest in Senegal and still less in the Sudan. On the other hand, he was said to owe his position to being the outstanding administrator and worker of the party in Senegal and was conceded by the French to have shown considerable restraint and sense of responsibility while in office). M. Mamadou Dia showed considerable awareness of Senegal's economic problems and emphasized his government's intention to direct development so as to associate the entire population with it. At various times it emerged that his two models were Yugoslavia and Israel. He was much less ready than M. Houphouet-Boigny to acknowledge the value of past French investments and wanted us to understand that his government was engaged in serious planning for every sector of the economy on the basis of a thorough inventory of Senegal's resources carried out since the country became autonomous. As Mr. Larre commented somewhat wryly, one might have thought French investments in Senegal had not been planned seriously at all.

As to the Bank, M. Mamadou Dia agreed with unnecessary vigor that the decision to join was for Mali alone and that he would decide in due course. He went on to say that he knew too little about the Bank to take a decision then and there - at which point Mr. Black reminded him gently that that was precisely one of the reasons for his visit to Dakar.

We had earlier had a thoughtful account of the Senegal development plan from M. Karim Gaye and discussed with him those elements that he thought might be eligible for Bank financing - irrigation and water power in the Senegal Valley, starting with a diversion dam near the mouth of the river at Dagana and more ambitious upstream storage dams to follow. I had discussed these projects with the French staff of the Fonds d'Assistance et de Coopération mission in Dakar (M. Perilhou), and gained the impression that although the engineering studies were well advanced under the direction of Neyrpic, there was a long way to go before the economic merits of the projects could be determined. Moreover major regulation works would be required upstream in the Sudan where planning was far less advanced than in Senegal. More generally, although Senegal and Sudan had agreed on the common services, e.g. the railroad, to be administered by Mali, a Mali economic policy as such was still no more than embryonic. Senegal river projects would also require the agreement of Mauritania, which was described to me as being "associated" with the Senegal valley development studies.

Other than Senegal valley projects, the only project referred to by the minister was the possible construction or expansion of fishing port facilities at Dakar to serve a projected 50,000 tons a year tuna canning plant.

The Prime Minister invited Mr. Black, Mr. Larre, Mr. Gibbs and myself to his home in the Medina for a Senegalese dinner, compounded variously and indigestibly of fish, chicken and peanuts. The following ministers were also invited: Karim Gaye, Joseph M'baye (Economic rurale), and Poytevin, Thiam, Dia Gissé (Industry and Commerce), and Mamadou Aw (Public Works - Mali), the only Sudanese we met, together with Maître Guillabert, Vice-President of the Senegal Assembly, and Mr. Graule representing the Chamber of Commerce.

The following morning, the party visited the port of Dakar, the Ile de Gorée and various public buildings. The men attended a luncheon offered by the Chamber of Commerce of the Dakar Région (Cap Vert), attended by local businessmen and bankers, whom Mr. Black met in two groups after lunch for a general exchange of view. Included in the meetings were M. Gallence (President of Chamber of Commerce) who was generally very attentive to the party during its stay in Dakar, and Mr. Brice (Public Works contractor), Bardet (export-import), Gas (miscellaneous small industry), Courvoisier and Jessul (groundnut oil), Bernos (Taïba-Phosphates), Tensille (Société Africaine des Pétroles), Dulcy (Comptoir Lyonnais), D'Allard (Société Générale), Biran (B.N.C.I.), Ducoulombier (B.C.A.O.). All of these men were surprisingly confident about the future of French and foreign businessmen in Mali, as well as the industrial and commercial prospects of the Dakar region and maintained that there had been was no significant flight of capital from Dakar since independence.

Later in the afternoon, Mr. Black was taken ill and our departure for Nouakchott was progressively postponed from May 29 to May 31. On leaving Dakar we flew over the new installations of the Compagnie Sénégalaise des Phosphates de Taïba, accompanied by Mr. Bernos, the local director, who was most anxious that Mr. Black should see them, against the possibility of a subsequent expansion requiring outside capital.

We received considerable help with travel arrangements from M. Jacques Goisbault, Directeur de la SOCOMAO, American Express representative in Dakar.

This is the first opportunity I have had to write and thank you for the hospitality extended to myself, Mrs. Black and my party by the Government of the Federation of Mali. It was exceedingly kind of you to arrange for our hotel accommodations; we were most comfortable and very well taken care of.

Our discussions with the ministers of the Federation were both interesting and instructive and I was glad to have the opportunity to hear at first hand their views about the economic and social problems of Senegal and Sudan.

Our stay was made all the more pleasant by the dinner so kindly given by M. Mamadou Dia, and I would like you to know that I very much appreciated his hospitality.

My dear Arnon:

It is more than difficult to write a "thank you" note to a person like yourself, but now that your visitors of last month are all back here, it is more difficult not to write at least a word or two of appreciation for all that you did for us when we were in Israel.

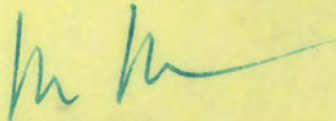

In particular the evening spent so delightfully in your home will stand out for a long time as one of the most comfortable incidents of the entire visit.

Also, as a "staff officer" frequently engaged in planning all kinds of programs and carrying them out, I can appreciate the skill with which you worked out the schedule for our visiting group. While some found it a bit crowded, every moment was so interesting that I cannot join in that complaint.

I suppose we shall see one another again in September and I shall look forward to that occasion.

Getting back to Washington is always a matter of immediately becoming immersed in the accumulations of one's absence. I hope however that you will not take it amiss if I write even at this late date to tell you once more how much I appreciate the interesting time that you gave us all, and me in particular, when we were in Israel last month.

It has taken this trip to make clear to me why people find themselves so enthusiastic about the developments in your country and it is an exciting scene to see.

Knowing that you were chiefly responsible for the interesting program and the generous hospitality given to us, I must say "thank you again".

I hope to see you again in September.

Items for Inclusion in Summary of Information for Mr. Black

You may wish to include in the summary of information for Mr. Black the following items:

IDA

(a) The IDA Bill has been passed by the Senate by a voice vote. An amendment was added on the floor of the Senate, the effect of which would be to prohibit the United States from providing P.L. 480 funds to IDA by way of grant. The Bill has also been reported out by the House Committee without amendment and with only three dissenting votes. It is expected to be approved by the House this week. The necessary appropriation provision is already pending before the Appropriations Committee of the House.

(b) The following countries have advised the Bank that they expect to complete membership in IDA by September 15: Australia, Canada, Ecuador, France, Germany, Iran, Jordan, Malaya, Norway, Pakistan, Panama, Philippines, United Kingdom and United States. Since the subscriptions of these countries aggregate $645 million out of the requisite $650 million, it appears highly probable that IDA will be in existence by September 15.

(c) The interdepartmental committee established by the management to consider IDA policy problems and prepare for IDA operations has been meeting regularly. A progress report reflecting the views of this committee will be ready for SLC consideration shortly.

Uganda Survey Mission

(d) A decision has been reached to send a general survey mission to Uganda in September. Professor Edward Mason of Harvard University has agreed to head this mission.

Argentine Transport Survey

(e) A consortium of three firms - Coverdale and Colpitts (U.S.), Nedeco (Netherlands) and Renardet - Sauti (Italy) - has been formed, at the instigation of the Bank, to undertake the technical work for the Argentine Transportation Survey. Representatives of this consortium went to Buenos Aires, accompanied by Mr. Sandelin, and there signed a contract with the Argentine Government on terms previously reviewed with the Bank. Meanwhile, the search for a Technical Director and Chief Economist for the whole operation has continued. General Edmund Leavey, who we had hoped would head the operation, has finally proved to be unavailable. An attempt is now being made to attract Mr. Jean Lessard, former Deputy Minister of Transportation of Canada. Mr. Lessard will visit the Bank on June 8 to discuss the assignment. It is also hoped to attract Allen Ferguson, Director of Research for the Transportation Center at Northwestern University, to serve as Chief Economist.

Irish Agricultural Survey

(f) A five-man mission has been organized to undertake an agricultural survey in Ireland commencing the middle of June. The survey will be headed by Mr. James G. Taggart, former Deputy Minister of Agriculture of Canada. The mission has been recruited in cooperation with FAO.

Central American Development Bank

(g) Mr. George Woods discussed this project in the Bank with Messrs. Demuth and Wishart and indicated that he would probably agree to assist the Bank to get this proposed institution organized, but he did not formally commit himself. In the meantime, letters have been sent out to Ministers of Finance of the five Central American countries and also to the Minister of Finance of Panama, outlining tentative proposals for a privately-owned regional development bank and asking the Ministers whether or not they approve, in principle, the creation of such an institution and would accept the Bank's proposals as a basis for negotiations. It is expected that a further visit to Central America, hopefully headed by Mr. Woods, will be made in July or August.

Material for Report to Mr. Black

The assistant general manager of Société Tunisienne de Banque (STB), who visited the Bank on June 3rd, registered the STB's objection to any attempt to convert the Société Nationale d'Investissement, which now does only equity financing, into a more rounded development bank by having take over the function of medium and long term lending now carried out by the STB. The Bank was invited to send a mission to Tunisia to study the situation and advise on the organization of development banking.

The $25 million market tranche of the loan to Société Pétrolière de Gérance became effective on May 16th.

Spain

Members of the Bank mission spent some six weeks in Spain in April and May. An economic report is now being prepared, as well as a preliminary report to the SIC on our policy towards lending and technical assistance in Spain.

By letter of May 17th, Finance Minister Navarro Rubio informed the Bank that the Council of Ministers had decided to request the Bank's assistance in the preparation of a long-range development plan for Spain.

My dear Minister,

Prior to his departure from Paris on an extended visit to various member countries of the Bank, largely in Africa, Mr. Black asked me to express to you his great personal appreciation for your hospitality in Paris on the night of April 29th, and for your kind cooperation during the ceremonies earlier that day, which attended the formal opening of the new European office of the Bank, Fund, and IFC.

Mr. Black wishes you to know that all of us who were present were honored by the presence of Mrs. Baumgartner and yourself, and we are grateful that you took the time from your busy schedule to join us.

With best personal regards,

Sincerely,

~~Letter to Gene~~
May 23, 1960

Dear Gene:

The attached memorandum, reporting that the Bank film may fall wide of its original objective is self-explanatory; but I do share with Bill Iliff the hope that you will be able to see the product very soon after your return in June.

Two other bits of news may interest you: Cy Sulzberger is meditating a big article on your efforts as a mediator, and George Young has sent material about this to him in Paris. Johnnie Miller knows about this and doubtless will mention it to you.

At the same time, Jack Forrest is anxious to do a kind of special piece on your African trip for the Times. This came up last week when Bill Bennett was having lunch with him, Paul Heffernan and Al Kraus (the banking correspondent of the Times). As of now, Forrest is anxious to have lunch with you, and this might not be a bad idea in any case.

Sincerely,

Harold Graves

May 21, 1960

Dear Raymond,

I spent a useful, if somewhat disorganised, 24 hours in Morocco, e.g. a rendez-vous in Casablanca with Elmandjra, who was in fact in Rabat, where he had arranged a meeting. I eventually got there by bus at 6.30. The fact that I had arrived at Rabat about 1 o'clock by plane and spent 1-1/2 hours there before flying to Casablanca did not seem to bother anyone. Fortunately I was feeling philosophical and after a half-hour meeting with people from the Foreign Office and the Ministry of Finance I was eventually driven back to Casablanca when it became apparent that I had to wait another two hours for a bus.

When I arrived in Casablanca, the British Counsel General told me that the Government was expected to fall any day, without there being any very clear idea as to who would succeed whom. As you may have seen in the press, Mr. Abraham was indeed fired the morning I left. He and Mr. Bouabid have, however, been told to "assurer l'intérim". Since our visit is to include an audience with the King, I assume we go on as if nothing had happened.

The imminent fall of the Government may in part have been responsible for the vagueness I encountered when trying to pin down details of whom we should meet. For example, when I suggested that Mr. Black might like to have the opportunity to meet other Ministers with economic responsibility, e.g. agriculture and public works, there was considerable unwillingness to take any commitments.

The basic program already outlined on April 20 seemed to be about as satisfactory as any. For example, we tried out arriving in Rabat but while that simplified the first day, it only complicated the last, since they were very anxious that we should have enough time to see Casablanca. I attach a revised and amplified version of the April 20 program, of which I have sent a copy to Elmandjra. He has undertaken to send to me at Dakar the names of various people who will be at meetings and dinners for which details were waiting on decisions by Mr. Bouabid. I have noted on the bottom of the revised program the names of the people with whom I discussed it. I was unable to do anything very useful in Casablanca on Friday morning since Mr. Bouabid had not designated the private businessmen whom we were to meet and whom I had said I would like to see for a few minutes at least, if at all possible. The civil servants were even unwilling to indicate a "short list". I was, however, able to sit down with Elmandjra and work out a briefing for the King on Mr. Black and the Bank and go over subjects that might be discussed.

Mr. Black will have an audience with the King most probably at 12 o'clock on Tuesday. The Crown Prince is expected to be there and Mr. Elmandjra will interpret, the King speaking Arabic. The King is expected to enquire about the Bank's general attitude towards Morocco and probably Mr. Black's views on the Bank's role in Africa more generally. He may want to talk about Morocco's political position vis-à-vis North Africa and the Middle East and, insofar as he refers to development at all, is likely to dwell on the social aspects. The Crown Prince will probably ask rather more detailed questions about the Bank's operations.

After what I have seen, I feel we may not have a very highly organised visit to Morocco, but at least I know some of the people who will be responsible for disorganisation and am a little better prepared to cope with it. The real value of my visit was, I think, to explain just what the visit was all about, for I found everybody, not excluding Elmandjra, really very vague on that score.

With best wishes,

Yours sincerely,

J. H. Williams

My dear Mr.Diamond,

I have not been able to contact you this morning -the Hotel said you were not available between 8:30/ 9 a.m.

I am anxious to have a short chat with Mr.Black about several matters. I would be prepared to call on him at any time if I could know when and where . I am about 11 miles from Accra, on our Research Station.

Please let me know what you have been able to arrange. Sir Robert Jackson probably could get a messenger to run out to me at Nungua, if necessary, if phone is not working.

I go to Kpong, another Research Station, this afternoon but will be back tonight. I shall try to phone you this evening early.

Kindly convey my kind wishes to Mr.Black.

Dear Diamond

When we learnt of Mr. Black's visit, I asked the Consultants if they could prepare an up-to-date report on the Niger Dam Investigations. I did not mention this previously as I was not certain whether it would reach Nigeria in time. It has, however, done so, and a copy is attached herewith.

The site at Kainji, to which reference is made, is, in fact, very close to the original Kurwasa site. Personally, I had been in the habit of regarding all the sites in the area as being "Kurwasa"; Kainji is, in fact, within three miles of the exact location of Kurwasa.

Subject: Request for personal interview.

Dear Sir,

I venture to disturb you on following subject.

About a month ago I submitted my application to the World Bank for an appointment as Traffic and Highway Engineer-Expert. This application has been forwarded to your Office through the German government at Bonn. The German government is recruiting a number of specialists for the services with the World Bank, and after the applicants have been carefully screened the successful ones are forwarded for further consideration to your Office at Washington.

On May 13, 1960 I received from Bonn communication that my application has been considered favourably and forwarded for final decision to Washington. A special Commission will come soon to Germany for personal interview of the selected candidates.

As regards to the last item I beg to inform you that I am still in the government services of Ghana, and will leave this country sometimes at the end of June, 1960. In case if your authorized Officers which are going to Germany to interview the applicants would arrive at Bonn before the end of June, I should have to make a special trip from Accra to Germany to attend the interview, and afterwards to return for a very short period to Ghana again to complete my contract obligations with the government here.

To avoid such an expensive journey, I beg you kindly to grant me some minutes of your time while you are resting at Accra, and allow me to see you for brief personal interview here, which may be would substitute my examination at Bonn.

I shall be glad to receive your kind advises, and to see you personally at any time convenient to you.

Yours faithfully

Following is the text of the telegram that I sent you last night about Mr. Black's stop at Villa Cisneros:

I am sure that Mr. Black will be pleased to take advantage of his stop in Villa Cisneros to meet your representatives there, provided it can be arranged without placing any additional strain on him after what will have been a very demanding program in the previous five weeks, with two more countries still to visit. I know that you will be the first to understand.

May I take this opportunity to thank you very sincerely for everything that you did for us during our stay in Spain, not only to facilitate greatly our work but also to make it such a personal pleasure for all of us.

AIR MAIL

Mr. Joseph Rucinski
Shepherd's Hotel
Cairo, Egypt

Dear Jeff:

I got your cable on Friday the 13th with all of its bad news. I have investigated your case with the Ethiopian airlines on travel from Nairobi to Addis. The facts seem to be as follows:

The air guide used by us, by American Express and by the airlines indicated that this flight left at 8:00 o'clock in the morning but that beginning April 15--and this was in black print--the time of the flight would change from 8:00 to 11:00 a.m. Obviously, with this information the flight was listed at 11:00 a.m., and the airlines confirmed it to us as the time of departure.

After calling the airlines, I have found out that even though this was printed in their schedules and established tariffs, the change in time was not approved by the government and, therefore, they had no alternative but to keep the hour of departure at 8:00 a.m. No one here knew of this and I do not think anyone knew about it until we received your wire and investigated it.

This is, of course, very little satisfaction to you, but it is one of the problems we have to deal with in worldwide travel. I hope that in your future travels, you will check both flights and times of departures and arrivals with the airlines upon arrival in a city because during the months of April and May all schedules are subject to review and even though we have established schedules and confirmed flights, apparently they can make a change without telling anyone.

Again, I am sorry this has happened but I wanted you to know the reason firsthand. I hope the rest of your trip will be more successful. Best wishes,

Sincerely yours,

Francis R. Poore

Dear John:

I was wrong to assume that the program for Mr. Black's visit to Tunisia which I sent you on May 12 would be the final one.

The Tunisian Embassy has now agreed to the attached program which I discussed this morning with Mr. El Goulli and which takes into account most of the wishes of the Tunisian Government cabled May 13. According to Mr. El Goulli it had been difficult for Tunis to arrange for a program because U.S. officials whom he did not want to name are visiting Tunisia at the same time.

I hope you had less difficulties with the Community and the Moroccans to work out the details for Mr. Black's visit.

Kind regards,

Sincerely yours,

Dear John:

Attached you will find the third and I hope the last version of the program for Mr. Black's visit in Tunisia. As you will see from the enclosed letter from Mr. Lejeune to Mr. El Goulli, we had to agree to have two "protocol" visits on June 3, Mr. Black's day of rest.

I attach also a copy of Moktar Ould Daddah's ^{May 2} reply to Mr. Cope's letter of April 19th.

The letter to the Moroccan Government, which follows the recommendations of S.L.C., is ready for signature but we would like Mr. Cope to see it before it goes out. I will send you a copy to Dakar, Hotel Croix du Sud, or to Paris if there is time.

Yours sincerely,

Dear Mr. El Goulli:

May I confirm our telephone conversation of yesterday afternoon about Mr. Black's proposed program in Tunisia.

As I mentioned to you, I am sure that one of the most important arrangements to make would be an opportunity for an informal and intimate discussion between the President of the Republic and Mr. Black and I hope very much that whatever program you arrange will provide an hour or more for this.

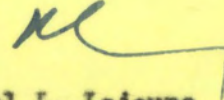

As to the program for the first day, Friday, June 3, Mr. Black needs this day to rest after an arduous program and journey on his way to Tunis. As you will appreciate, he will by then have been constantly travelling for over a month. I appreciate, however, the wish of your Government to extend a welcome to Mr. Black upon his first day and I know that Mr. Black, too, would wish to pay his respects at an early state. As we discussed, perhaps the best solution would lie in arranging one or two early appointments for him on Friday morning. Perhaps these could be so arranged that if your Government would wish him to meet other ministers in addition to the Minister of Finance and the President of the Republic, he could meet more than one person at each of, say, two appointments. So that the rest of the day might be left free for relaxation, I would suggest that the first appointment be at 9:00 in the morning with the second to follow immediately thereafter with the hope that both would be over by 10:30 or 11:00.

The question arises as to whether Mr. Black's full discussion with the President should take place on the second or third day or whether you would wish it to be combined with his visit to the President on the first day. I am sure that Mr. Black would fall in with either possibility, but if he were to see the President for a long appointment on Friday, it would, of course, be necessary to make any other appointment very short.

Mr. Salaheddine El Goulli
Minister Plenipotentiary
Embassy of Tunisia
2408 Massachusetts Avenue, N. W.
Washington, D. C.

I know that Mr. Black looks forward to being in Tunisia and considers it one of the most important visits he will be making in the course of his journey.

Yours sincerely,

Michael L. Lejeune

Dear Grahame,

I learned today from Mr. Haastrup of your kind invitation to stay with you during my brief visit to Lagos. I am very grateful indeed for your thoughtfulness, and look forward to seeing you Sunday morning, May 15.

When I returned from India in late February, I was astonished to learn you were in Nigeria - the more so when I discovered that your decision to go was taken before I went to India. A separation of three floors in the Bank is a very great separation, indeed.

Lois joins me in best wishes to you.

Sincerely yours,

Dear John:

Op the Spain portion

Personal

I hope that by now you will have received my letters of April 22 and May 2 with various materials referring to Mr. Black's trip in the enclosure. Both letters were addressed to you at the Hotel Ritz. Let me summarize the situation on each of your countries:

1. Ivory Coast. - Mr. Black received a friendly letter of invitation from Houphouët-Boigny. Reply attached.

2. Federation of Mali. - We have not yet received a letter of invitation. Mr. Black has written Modibo Keita to announce his visit. (Letter attached).

3. Mauritania. - Mr. Cope has written to the Prime Minister to inform him about Mr. Black's forthcoming visit. (Letter Attached).

4. Morocco. - The attached revised schedule was discussed with Elmandjra on April 20th before his departure for Rabat. Minor changes will be discussed with you. If there were any major changes he would cable us.

5. Tunisia. - The Tunisian Government suggested a program which was too heavy and we had to make it clear that Mr. Black needs Friday, June 3rd as a day of rest. El Goulli has now cabled the attached program to his Government for approval. El Goulli is not yet certain whether he will be in Tunis during Mr. Black's visit. Mr. Gibbs should cable Nestiri, the Minister of Finance, as soon as he knows the approximate time of the arrival of your plane in Tunis.

6. Other Items

Two Ministers from Madagascar, Ramangasoavina (Industries and Planning) and Miadana (Economy) who are on a tour of the U.S. visited Mr. Lejeune yesterday and expressed their eagerness to join the Bank as soon as independence is officially declared. The agreements with France on the transfer of responsibilities, which probably follow the Mali pattern, were signed last month.

I attach also another copy of the SIC meeting on Morocco as well as a number of pages containing biographical and other information forwarded by Finances Extérieures after your visit in Paris, to be inserted in your copies of the briefs on the Federation of Mali and on the Ivory Coast.

Kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

Letter Telegram Letter telegrams are normally delivered the morning after day of despatch. The cost is half the cost of full rate messages with a minimum charge for 22 words including address and text.

Full Rate Full rate messages are normally transmitted and delivered immediately. There is a minimum charge for 5 words, including address and text.

IBF Govt. This is a preferential rate extended by some member countries. Messages are sent at full rate speed and at about half the cost. This rate normally should be used whenever available. It is at present available for the following countries:

Brazil	Dominican Republic	Jordan	Uruguay
Burma	Ecuador	*Lebanon	Venezuela
Chile	El Salvador	Nicaragua	Yugoslavia
*China	*France	Pakistan
Colombia	Greece	Panama
Costa Rica	Guatemala	*Peru

*In these countries the letter telegram rate is lower than IBF government rate and should be used for messages when immediate transmission is not required.

Code Code messages are transmitted at full rate (or IBF Govt.) speed and cost. This rate should be used only for confidential messages to staff members having a code with them.

Day Letter Day letters are delivered during the day of transmission and should be used only for messages in the United States and to Mexico and Canada. There is a minimum charge for 50 words in text.

Teletype To be used only for messages to the New York Office, United Nations, and certain commercial firms. For information, call Cable Post (Ext. 3008).

(No charge is made for the name of a country.)

3. Text

Messages to Missions and to Resident Representatives should be numbered. These numbers may be obtained by calling Ext. 3008.

Type text in capital letters and double space between lines. The text should be edited to eliminate unnecessary words and unnecessary punctuation. If punctuation is needed, spell out the words "Comma," "Stop," etc.

Use common abbreviations whenever possible, i.e. reourlet, reurfive, etc. Write as one word hyphenated words, hyphenated names, and certain two-word groups, e.g. Airmail, Newyork, enduse.

4. Signature

5. Authorization

Type in name of department of staff member authorizing message and have authorizing staff member sign the original (pink copy). A list of authorized signatures is kept in the cable office.

Forward messages in triplicate in a cable envelope to Room 211 for despatch. The cable service is open from 9:00 a.m. to 5:45 p.m. on working days. Special arrangements should be made for the despatch of cables outside of these hours.

GUIDE FOR PREPARING OUTGOING WIRES

1. Class of Service

Type in class of service desired. Each class is described as follows:

Letter Telegram Letter telegrams are normally delivered the morning after day of despatch. The cost is half the cost of full rate messages with a minimum charge for 22 words including address and text.

Full Rate Full rate messages are normally transmitted and delivered immediately. There is a minimum charge for 5 words, including address and text.

IBF Govt. This is a preferential rate extended by some member countries. Messages are sent at full rate speed and at about half the cost. This rate normally should be used whenever available. It is at present available for the following countries:

Bolivia	Cuba	Honduras	*Syria
Brazil	Dominican Republic	Jordan	Uruguay
Burma	Ecuador	*Lebanon	Venezuela
Chile	El Salvador	Nicaragua	Yugoslavia
*China	*France	Pakistan
Colombia	Greece	Panama
Costa Rica	Guatemala	*Peru

*In these countries the letter telegram rate is lower than IBF government rate and should be used for messages when immediate transmission is not required.

Code Code messages are transmitted at full rate (or IBF Govt.) speed and cost. This rate should be used only for confidential messages to staff members having a code with them.

Day Letter Day letters are delivered during the day of transmission and should be used only for messages in the United States and to Mexico and Canada. There is a minimum charge for 50 words in text.

Teletype To be used only for messages to the New York Office, United Nations, and certain commercial firms. For information, call Cable Post (Ext. 3008).

2. Address

Use only last name of addressee and cable address whenever possible. The Bank cable address "INTBAFRAD" is registered in Paris, Bogota, Canal Zone, Karachi, Lima, London, New Delhi, New York, Quito, Tegucigalpa and Tehran. The International Finance Corporation cable address "CORINTFIN" is registered in New York, Paris and London. The name of the country of destination must always be added. (No charge is made for the name of a country.)

3. Text

Messages to Missions and to Resident Representatives should be numbered. These numbers may be obtained by calling Ext. 3008.

Type text in capital letters and double space between lines. The text should be edited to eliminate unnecessary words and unnecessary punctuation. If punctuation is needed, spell out the words "Comma," "Stop," etc.

Use common abbreviations whenever possible, i.e. reourlet, reurfive, etc. Write as one word hyphenated words, hyphenated names, and certain two-word groups, e.g. Airmail, Newyork, enduse.

4. Signature

Type in last name of sender. Use INTBAFRAD or CORINTFIN as part of the signature only when addressee does not know the address of sender.

5. Authorization

Type in name of department of staff member authorizing message and have authorizing staff member sign the original (pink copy). A list of authorized signatures is kept in the cable office.

Forward messages in triplicate in a cable envelope to Room 211 for despatch. The cable service is open from 9:00 a.m. to 5:45 p.m. on working days. Special arrangements should be made for the despatch of cables outside of these hours.

ANY QUESTIONS REGARDING INCOMING AND OUTGOING WIRES SHOULD BE REFERRED TO THE CABLE POST, EXT. 3008.

En réponse à votre lettre du 19 Avril 1960, j'ai l'honneur de vous informer que je serai très heureux d'accueillir M. BLACK à NOUAKCHOTT, le dimanche 29 Mai

Tout en regrettant vivement la brièveté de sa

Dear Mr. El Goulli:

You will recall our conversation of two weeks ago about Mr. Black's forthcoming visit to Tunisia. Among other things, we reviewed the things he might do during his several days there. Since we have not yet had any suggestions from your Government about the program we discussed that day, we have taken the liberty of drawing up a suggested schedule. You will find a copy enclosed. In cabling it to your Government, I hope you will make it quite clear that this is a list of suggestions, not a final program, and that it is subject to change. However, we must have your Government's suggestions as quickly as possible and I hope, therefore, that you will ask for a cabled response from Tunis.

We would also be grateful for confirmation of your thought that the Government would wish to arrange appropriate accommodations for Mr. Black's party.

With best wishes,

Yours sincerely,

William Diamond
