Ambassador to the United States

Escorting Officer:

Mr. Abruzzi--Assistant to Speaker of the House Thomas O'Neill

Purpose of Visit:

This is the first foreign visit of President Markovic and the composition of the group of very senior officials is indicative of the importance being placed in it by Yugoslavia. The focus will be on the major elements in the strengthened US-Yugoslav relations and reflects the special attention given by Yugoslavia to Vice President Mondale, Deputy Secretary of State Christopher and Defense Secretary Brown during their visits to Yugoslavia during the past year.

The Delegation arrives at Andrews Air Force Base on Sunday, July 16, and will be welcomed by Congressman George E. Danielson, Deputy Majority Whip. During their stay in Washington they will meet with Speaker O'Neill, Chairman Zablocki of the House International Relations Committee, Minority Leader Rhodes, several delegations of the House, Chairman Biden of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, Acting Secretary of State Christopher and Chairman Schultz of the Council of Economic Advisors. A meeting with Vice President Mondale is also expected. The subjects of discussion will be US-Yugoslav political and economic relations, Yugoslav development and policy and the Middle East situation.
