

Brief I 3. April 2022

Meeting with the Welthungerhilfe Organization and the German Executive Director

Mathias Mogge, Secretary General of Welthungerhilfe (WHH) and at the same time Chairman of the Association for Development Policy and Humanitarian Aid (VENRO) was the first guest of new German Executive Director Michael Krake. Accompanied by his colleague Bettina Iseli, WHH Program Director, the discussion focused on the impact of the war in Ukraine on developing countries, especially with regard to food security and potential responses of the World Bank. In addition, Mogge and Iseli provided information on WHH's innovative digital development solutions, for example in the area of agricultural productivity or child health, which could be further disseminated in cooperation with World Bank programs. In a technical discussion with the project team of the regional food system project in the Sahel, the representatives of WHH and the World Bank were able to assess potential entry points for improved cooperation in partner countries.
