

The East Asia & Pacific Chief Economist Office
Research Center in Kuala Lumpur presents:

The Economics of Covid-19 in Developing East Asia & the Pacific

An introductory course

23 NOVEMBER (US EASTERN TIME)
24 NOVEMBER (ASIA PACIFIC TIME)

9 pm (Washington D.C.)

9 am (Bangkok, Hanoi, Jakarta, Phnom Penh, Vientiane)

10 am (Beijing, Kuala Lumpur, Manila, Singapore, Ulaanbaatar)

11 am (Seoul, Tokyo)

This 2 hour course will introduce the conceptual and empirical analysis of key economic and policy issues.

Topics covered:

- Economy wide impact: The macroeconomics of the pandemic and implications for macro policy.
- Firms and Technology: The microeconomics of firms in crisis, recovery & growth.
- Households: The microeconomics of labor markets, education, health & inequality.
- Globalization: The international economics of trade and supply chains in goods & services.

Click here to RSVP

Live interpretation in selected languages will be available
(depending on attendance)