

National Business League (NBL) and National Black Chamber of Commerce (NBCC) State of Black Business Luncheon – September 27, 2022.

World Bank U.S. Executive Director Dr. Adriana D. Kugler

During this event, Dr. Kugler delivered remarks encouraging Black businesses to seek opportunities to work with the World Bank to a “State of Black Business” Luncheon that is a combined effort of the National Business League & National Black Chamber of Commerce.

During her speech, Dr. Kugler reinforced the Biden-Harris Administration’s commitment to making greater efforts to include historically marginalized groups as well as to expand the pool of U.S. companies working with the World Bank and international development infrastructure projects writ large under the Partnership for Global Infrastructure and Investment.
