

Anita Guelfi

Anita is an accomplished quantitative economist, with over 20 years of experience in both Italian and international institutions. Her main areas of interest are Italian and European labour markets, international migration, policy evaluation.

She is currently Head of the Technical Secretariat of the Italian Minister of Finance, supporting the Minister on both domestic and international economic files. Before joining the Ministry of Finance in April 2023, Anita has been working for the previous 6 years at the President's Office of the Italian National Statistical Institute (ISTAT), where she coordinated the President's scientific activity. She is also co-funder of the Italian Centre for International Development, at the University of Rome "Tor Vergata" and worked for several years with the World Bank as a consultant.

Anita graduated in Economics at the LUISS "Guido Carli" University in Rome and holds a Ph.D in History and Theory of Economic Development from the same University. She also completed a two-year post-graduate Program in Economics at the Institut für Höhere Studien in Vienna.