

PRIVACY NOTICE

Note: The following Privacy Notice applies to events organized by The World Bank. The World Bank means, collectively, the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development (IBRD), and the International Development Association (IDA) (together the “World Bank” or “Bank”, “we” or “us”).

This Privacy Notice is under regular review and may be updated periodically to reflect the applicable rules and policies of the World Bank Group regarding data privacy and security.

Last Revised: [January 2, 2022]

The World Bank, (“we” or “us”), respects your concerns about your privacy and is committed to protecting it by establishing and complying with the following Privacy Notice which adheres to the core privacy principles set forth in the Personal Data Privacy Policy and Directive of World Bank Group Institutions. This Privacy Notice applies to the personal data The World Bank collects and handles for the purposes of (i) Registering for its events; (ii) Participating in its events; (iii) Engaging with its activities. Engaging with World Bank activities may include links to third-party websites and web applications associated with the delivery of World Bank activities, including event registration services and event attendance services. For the purposes of this Privacy Notice, “personal data” means any information relating to an identified or identifiable individual.

INFORMATION WE COLLECT

Information You Provide to World Bank

World Bank collects Personal Data from you directly, including the information you enter during the registration or participation in our events, and communications activities (e.g., annual report, website and its social media channels, blog, and newsletter).

Information We Collect by Automated Means

We obtain certain Personal Data by automated means when you visit this site, such as the IP address of the device you use to connect to the Internet and the pages accessed. By collecting this information, we learn how to best tailor the site to our visitors. We collect this information through various means, including “cookies” and “web beacons”.

Cookies and Web Beacons

Like many websites, this website use “cookies” and “web beacons”. Cookies are bits of text that are placed on your computer’s hard drive when you visit certain websites. A “web beacon,” also known as an Internet tag, pixel tag or clear GIF, links web pages to web servers and their cookies and may be used to transmit information collected through cookies back to a web server. Through these automated collection methods, we obtain “clickstream data,” which is a log of content on which a visitor clicks while browsing a website. As the visitor clicks through the website, a record of the action may be collected and stored.

This information is used to measure activity on this site, determine which areas and features of this website are the most popular and help us provide better service. Most browsers will tell you how to stop accepting new cookies, how to be notified when you receive a new cookie and how to disable existing cookies. Without cookies, however, you may not be able to take full advantage of all the site features.

INFORMATION WE SHARE

World Bank does not sell or otherwise disclose Personal Data collected as set out above, except as described in this Privacy Notice, with third-parties we collaborate with in organizing our events. Information may be shared with third-party service providers who perform services for World Bank (i.e., registration or virtual event hosting, event management vendors, hotels, various transportation companies and travel agencies). These service providers are not authorized by us to use or disclose Personal Data, except as necessary to perform services for us. World Bank requires its service providers to appropriately safeguard the privacy and security of personal data they process on its behalf. adheres to the World Bank Procedure on Personal Data Privacy:

- i. If the third party is a vendor, we review the Vendor's privacy policy and privacy compliance program or equivalent, inclusion of privacy contract clauses in the Bank contract and monitoring of compliance therewith throughout the contract lifecycle pursuant to the World Bank Group Procedure Vendor Risk Management.
- ii. If the third part is a not a Vendor, we review the third party's internal policies, obtaining appropriate agreement on privacy measures and monitoring of compliance therewith throughout the lifecycle of engagement with the Third Party.

We may also share your personal data with other third parties which collaborate with us in organizing our events. Third parties refer to any other party that is not part of the World Bank Group. The World Bank is part of the World Bank Group and the consent in this form to the World Bank extends to the World Bank Group as the legal entity conducting this data collection and handling for the purposes stated in this notice.

We also may disclose Personal Data about you (i) if obliged to do so under international law or by requirements of applicable World Bank Group policies and procedures, (ii) for the purposes of, or in connection with, any legal proceedings, or otherwise for the purposes of establishing, exercising or defending any legal right; or (iii) when we believe disclosure is necessary or appropriate to prevent physical harm or financial loss or in connection with an investigation of suspected or actual illegal activity.
