

Borrowing Highlights

The International Bank for Reconstruction and Development (IBRD), known as the World Bank in the capital markets, aims to manage its borrowing program by being responsive to investors' needs.

- It issues a range of products designed for different investor groups, chooses timing, currency, and maturity of new issues according to market demand, seeks to price fairly in the primary market, monitors the secondary market performance of its issues, and aims for broad geographic placement to a wide range of investors.
- The World Bank's mission to fight poverty in a sustainable way, through education, health, environment, and infrastructure make IBRD bonds suitable for investors with investment strategies that aim to maximize environmental and social returns ("socially responsible", "sustainable", "ethical", or "impact" investment strategies).

Wide Range of Debt Instruments

The World Bank offers a variety of issues ranging from large, liquid global bonds to plain vanilla retail-targeted or local currency bonds to structured notes in maturities all along the yield curve.

Broad Currency Diversification

The World Bank has issued bonds in 63 currencies since 1947. In Fiscal Year 2022, World Bank issued USD 41 billion in bonds denominated in 23 currencies.
